MEDICAL DEPARTMENT OF HAMPden Sydney College, Richmond, Va.—The sixteenth annual course of lectures will commence on Monday, the 10th day of October, 1853, and continue until the 1st of the ensuing March.
The commencement for conferring degrees will be held about the middle of March.

R. L. Bohannon, M. D., Prof. of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children.
L. W. Chamberlaine, M. D., Prof. of Materia Medica and Therapeutics.
Martin P. Scott, M. D., Lecturer on Chemistry and Pharmacy.
Chas. Bell Gibson, M. D., Prof. of Surgery and Surgical Anatomy.
Carter P. Johnson, M. D., Prof. of Anatomy and Physiology.

The study of practical anatomy may be proceeded with the most ample facilities, and at very trifling expense.
Clinical lectures are regularly given at the college infirmary and Richmond almshouse. The infirm, under the same roof with the college, and subject to the personal control of the faculty, is at times well filled with medical and surgical cases, and furnishes peculiar facilities for clinical instruction. Many surgical operations are performed in presence of the students, and the students, enjoying the guidance of the professors, unusual opportunities for becoming familiar with the symptoms, diagnosis and treatment of disease.

EXERCISES.—Matriculation fee, $5. Professors' fees, $100. Demonstrator's fee, $10. Graduation fee, $25.
The price of board, including fuel, light, and nursery attendance, is usually $3 or $3 1/2 per week. DAVID H. TUCKER, M. D., Secy.—29—41

SELECT CLASSICAL and Mathematical School at College Hill, where a commodious building is being fitted up for its reception.

As the Preparatory Department of the Columbian College, it will continue to preserve the character of a strictly select school, designed for laying the foundation of a thorough English, Classical, and Mathematical education. The next session will commence on the 12th of September, and close on the last of June.

Terms: $12 50 per quarter, payable in advance.
At a small additional charge, the students will be permitted to attend the Lectures delivered in the College on Chemistry, Geology, and Mineralogy, and also to receive instruction in French and other Modern Languages by the Professor in that department.

Pupils may be boarded at the College, under the special care and superintendence of the Principal.
The necessary expenses of a full boarding student will be about $100 per academic year, and of a weekly boarding student, about $25.

GEORGE S. BACON, Principal.
Refers to the Faculty of the Columbian College; Col. J. L. Edwards, Col. Peter Force, Wm. Gunter, Esq., L. D. Gale, M. D., of the Patent Office;

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—The next session of this institution will open the 1st of October, and close the 29th of June following.
The university embraces the following schools, namely: 1, ancient languages; 2, modern languages; 3, mathematics; 4, natural philosophy, mineralogy, and geology; 5, chemistry; 6, medicine; 7, comparative anatomy, physiology, and surgery; 8, moral philosophy, rhetoric, and belles lettres; 9, law. Also a lectureship of special anatomy and materia medica, and a demonstration of anatomy. The schools of ancient languages, modern languages, and mathematics, have each an assistant professor, and in the school of law there is an adjunct professor.

The expenses, (not including clothing, books, or pocket-money), are as follows: Board, per day, $1.00; per week, $7.00; per month, $21.00; per quarter, $63.00; per year, $252.00. Boarding, including diet, room-furniture, and attendance of servant, payable in three installments in advance. 120 00 Room rent, per month, 8 00 Clothing, per month, 8 00 (Rents without the precincts, something more.) Matriculation fee, $15; contingent deposit, $10. 30 00
Washing, say $10; fuel and light, say $20. 30 00

Students of medicine are charged with four tickets, at $25 each, and a dissecting fee of $5.
The fee in the immediate class of law is $60; in senior class, $75.

GEORGE HARRISON,
Chairman of the Faculty.

NATIONAL MEDICAL COLLEGE.
Washington.—The Thirty-second Annual Course of Lectures, commencing on the fourth Monday of October, and continue until March.

Thomas Miller, D. Professor of Anatomy and Physiology.
Wm. P. Johnson, M. D., Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children.
Joshua Riley, D. D., Professor of Materia Medica, Therapeutics and Hygiene.
John Fred. May, M. D., Professor of the Principles and Practice of Surgery.
Geor. Tyler, M. D., Professor of Pathology and Practice of Medicine.
Robert King Stone, M. D., Professor of Microscopical and Pathological Anatomy.
Lewis H. Steiner, M. D., Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy.
William H. Saunders, M. D., Professor and Demonstrator.

The facilities for the prosecution of practical anatomy are ample and complete.
Like most similar institutions in Europe, the desks from which the regular lectures are given, and the wards for clinical instruction are under the same roof.

The extensive additions to the buildings since a session, for the accommodation of the most of the students, will greatly extend the usefulness of the entire expense for a full course of lectures is $100.
Practical anatomy by the demonstration, 10 00 Matriculation fee (payable only once), 5 00 Graduation fee, 25 00
Admission to the Medical and Surgical Clinic (though the whole course without charge).

MEDICAL CARD.—Dr. R. & J. Hunter, physicians for diseases of the chest, &c., &c., do hereby announce that they will remove to New York on the 5th of December next, or as soon thereafter as they shall have completed desired professional arrangements in regard to their practice in Washington and Baltimore. The motive for this change is that of being more central and easy of access to those visiting them from distant parts of the Union.

Dr. James Hunter will, during the winter, visit professionally St. Augustine, Jacksonville, and the principal resorts for invalids on the southern coast of Florida.
Dr. Robert Hunter will visit Washington and Baltimore on professional business every six months after December.

Will be published in January next an American edition of the "Introduction," "Notes," and an Appendix, by R. Hunter, M. R. C. S.

WASHINGTON DAILY SENTINEL

CITY OF WASHINGTON, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1854.

Agencies and Law Offices.

AGENCY AT WASHINGTON.—To Charles DICKENS, who continues to undertake the agency of claims before Congress and other branches of the government, including commissioners under treaties, and the various public offices. He will attend to promotion and other land claims, the procuring of patents for the public lands, and procuring scrip for Virginia bounty land warrants, and the confirmation by Congress of grants and claims to lands, half-pay, and property lost in or for the service of the United States; property destroyed by the Indians, or while in the possession of the United States; invalid, revolutionary, navy, widows', and half-pay pensions; claims for revolutionary services, whether for commutation, half-pay, or bounty lands; also, claims for extra and back pay, &c., of soldiers, sailors and marines; as well those against the State of Virginia, as the United States; all claims, growing out of contracts with the government, for damages sustained in consequence of the action or conduct of the government; and, indeed, any business before Congress or the public offices, may require the aid of an agent or attorney. His charges will be moderate, and depending upon the amount of the claim and the extent of the service.
N. B.—Dickens is known to most of those who have been in Congress within the last few years, or who have occupied any public station at Washington.
His office is on Fifteenth street, opposite to the Treasury Department, and next door to the Bank of the Metropolis.
All letters must be postpaid.

W. BROWNING, Merchant Tailor, under the United States Hotel, having completed and improved his store, would have respectfully call the attention of citizens, and strangers visiting Washington, to his well-selected stock of French and English cloths, cassimeres, and vest of the newest and most elegant style of goods from the New York market.
Having had twenty years' experience in the purchase of goods from the best importing houses in the United States, with such charges as they enable him to offer them to the public on such terms as will give entire satisfaction to the purchaser, and in view of increasing his business, he has purchased a superior large stock of goods, such as will give competition for their beauty, style, and cheapness.

He has a call before you purchase elsewhere, and he will convince you that you will save your money by so doing. And a call of confidence can be made up in the most elegant style at twelve hours' notice.
Superior Ready-made Clothing.
I have on hand a superior stock of ready-made clothing, of my own work, made up in the most fashionable manner, such as overcoats in various styles, frock and dress coats, and also pants and vests, which will be sold at much less price than work made to order.

TAKE NOTICE.—The subscriber has now on hand a very good assortment of Fine Gold Watches; rich and fashionable jewelry; pure Silver Ware, &c., &c., that he is anxious to dispose of before his New Store arrives, and with a view to great inducements (in the way of Low Prices) to those who are in want of such goods. He will therefore sell all kinds of fine goods at from 10 to 25 per cent. below the usual prices asked elsewhere in this section of the country. He solicits an early call at his store on Penn. avenue, between 4th and 6th streets. Sign of the Large Spread Eagle. H. O. HOOD.

EDWARD LYCETT, Sen., Book-Blinder Potomac Hall, corner of Eleventh street and Maryland avenue, over Clarke's Drug store, Washington, D. C.
Every style of book-binding executed, either in velvet, Turkey Morocco, Russia, or fancy colors, or Periodicals and Music neatly half-bound.
Mr. Lycett respectfully suggests to his friends that while much has been done to transmit family records, little care has been taken to preserve personal reminiscences. He takes this method to inform his friends that he has a new and improved method of preserving personal reminiscences, that daguerotype photographs can be laid on the inside covers of family bibles, presentation-books, or keepsakes, specimens of which can be seen at his establishment, and can be addressed by letter, which will be promptly attended to.
